PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 19 You shall reside in a community corrections center for a period up to 180 days. This placement may include a pre-release component, day reporting and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring but not to include GPS) at the direction of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.

CAUSE

The offender presently does not have a stable release plan. Release from the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) in Lompoc, California, to the residential reentry center (RRC) located in Seattle, Washington, will afford Mr. Vaughn support and time to secure employment and save money to reside independently in the Western District of Washington where he has family support. The Western District of Washington has agreed to take courtesy supervision of this case since the offender signed the attached modification.

Please note that the hearing scheduled on January 5, 2007, at 11 a.m. can now be stricken in this matter. Initially, the offender refused to sign a modification for U.S. probation officer (USPO) Anne Sauther to release from FCI Lompoc to the RRC in Spokane, Washington. USPO Sauther had filed a Prob 12D, Request for Summons and Modification of the Conditions or Term of Supervision, with the Court on December 8, 2006. This matter is now a mute point.
